ARTICLE I.

Name and Object.

This organization shall be known as The Woman's Reading Club, of Fort Wayne.

The object of the club shall be the study of History, Literature and Art, and the general intellectual and social culture of its members.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 1. The number of active members shall be limited to thirty-two. All names of candidates for membership shall be presented to the Secretary in writing, endorsed by two members of the club. As vacancies occur these applicants shall be voted upon by ballot in the order in which their names have been proposed, and it shall require a majority vote of the members to elect. One ballot only shall be taken upon each name. Names of applicants must be proposed at a regular meeting at least two weeks before they are voted upon.

Sec. 2. A member who is absent for three consecutive club meetings without sending an excuse to the Secretary on or before the date of the fourth meeting, will be considered as desiring to withdraw from the club, and her name will be taken from the list, the Secretary notifying said member to that effect.

Sec. 3. Any member may bring a friend not a resident of the city to any regular meeting.

ARTICLE III.

Sec. 1. The officers of the club shall consist of a President, a Secretary. who shall also act as Treasurer, and a Program Committee of three members.

Sec. 2. These officers shall be elected at the annual business meeting in March; the President and Secretary to enter upon their respective duties at the close of the working year. The Program Committee shall immediately assume the duties of their office.

Sec. 3. The duties of the Program Committee shall be to prepare and have printed the program for the following year, and to distribute the same four weeks before the first meeting. The drawing for dates shall be two weeks after the annual meeting. If, for any acceptable reason a member cannot perform the work arranged for her, the Program Committee shall arrange the work for that day.

ARTICLE IV.

Meetings.

Sec. 1. The club year shall begin the second Tuesday of October and end the middle of May, the meetings to be held fortnightly at half past two o'clock.

Sec. 2. The place for each meeting shall be announced at the previous meeting. If for any reason the hostess shall change the time and place of meeting, she shall notify each member of such change.

ARTICLE V.

All necessary expense shall be divided equally among the members of the club. There shall be an annual fee of $1.50 for each member, payable at the first meeting in October.

ARTICLE VI.

Twelve members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VII.

These by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting, provided a written notice of the intended amendment be given to the Secretary at a previous meeting.

ARTICLE I.

Name and Object.

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Reading Club of Fort Wayne.

The object of the club shall be the study of History, Literature and Art, and the general intellectual and social culture of its members.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 1. The number of active members shall be limited to thirty-two. Associate membership unlimited. All names of candidates for membership shall be presented to the Secretary in writing, endorsed by two members of the club. As vacancies occur these applicants shall be voted upon by ballot in the order in which their names have been proposed, and it shall require a majority vote of the members to elect. One ballot only shall be taken upon each name. A name that is rejected shall not be presented again under six (6) months. Names of applicants must be proposed at a regular meeting at least two weeks before they are voted upon.

Sec. 2. Any member may bring a friend, not a resident of the city, to any regular meeting.

ARTICLE III.

Sec. 1. The officers of the club shall consist of a President, a Secretary, who shall also act as Treasurer, and a Program Committee of three members.

Sec. 2. These officers shall be elected at the annual business meeting in March; the President and Secretary to enter upon their respective duties at the close of the working year. The Program Committee shall immediately assume the duties of their office.

Sec. 3. The duties of the Program Committee shall be to prepare and have printed the program for the following year, and to distribute the same four weeks before the first meeting. The drawing for dates shall be two weeks after the annual meeting. If for any acceptable reason a member cannot perform the work arranged for her, the Program Committee shall arrange the work for that day.

ARTICLE IV.

The Club year shall begin the first Tuesday of October and end the middle of May, the meetings to be held fortnightly, at half past two o'clock.

ARTICLE V.

All necessary expense shall be divided equally among the members of the club. There shall be an annual fee of $1.50 for each member, payable at the first meeting in October.

ARTICLE VI.

Seven (7) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VII.

These by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting, provided a written notice of the intended amendment be given to the Secretary at a previous meeting.

Heaven were not Heaven if we knew what it were."

OCTOBER 3.

Hostess, MRS. BRADSHAW

Social afternoon.

Vacation Notes by all the members.

"Perhaps the remembrance of these things will prove a source of future pleasure."

OCTOBER 17.

Hostess, MRS. SHOAFF

"A traveler without observation is as a bird without wings."

MISS JOHNSON

"Friendship! Mysterious cement of the soul;
Sweetner of life, and solder of society."

MRS. SHOAFF

OCTOBER 31.

Hostess, MRS. FOSTER

"Into the solemn, silent woods,
Nature, with folded hands, seemed there."

MRS. TAYLOR

"Whether to bear the ills we have (at home)
Or fly to those we know not of (at the club)."

MRS. FOSTER

NOVEMBER 14.

Hostess, MRS. GRANGER

Assisted by MRS. STOUDER

"There is nothing either good or bad, but thinking makes it so."

MRS. GRANGER

"Who mixed reason with pleasure, and wisdom with mirth."

MRS. STOUDER

NOVEMBER 28.

Hostess, Mrs. Wilson

"To finish the moment, to find the journey's end. In every step of the road to live the greatest number of hours, is wisdom."

Mrs. Branson

Mrs. Wilson

DECEMBER 12.

Hostess, MRS. FISHER

"Time will run back and fetch the age of gold."

MISS SIHLER

"Thought is deeper than all speech,
Feeling deeper than all thought."

MRS. HAYDEN

JANUARY 2.

Hostess, MRS. HARPER

"Daughters of Martha."

MRS. AVERILL

"That good diffused, may more abundant grow."

MRS. HARPER

JANUARY 16.

Anniversary

Hostess, MRS. FAIRBANK

"It is not the quantity of the meat, but the cheerfulness of the guests that makes the feast."

MRS. OLDS
MRS. FISHER
MRS. FAIRBANK

JANUARY 30.

Hostess, Mrs. Beers

"So still, O Art, we follow where thy hand
Points to the path the beautiful hath trod,
For art joins hand with beauty,
Beauty's hand touches the throne of God."

Mrs. Bradshaw
Mrs. Beers

FEBRUARY 13.

Hostess, MRS. WORDEN

"Woman is at once the delight and the terror of man."

MRS. MORRIS

"We sleep, but the loom of life never stops, and the pattern which was weaving when the sun went down is weaving when it comes up tomorrow."

MRS. WORDEN

FEBRUARY 27.

Hostess, Mrs. Morris

"And truth severe, by fairy fiction drest."

Miss MacDougal

"Each for the joy of the working,
And each in his separate star,
Shall draw the Thing as he sees It,
For the God of Things as They Are."

Mrs. Williams

MARCH 12.

Annual Business Meeting

Hostess, Mrs. Olds

"Do not waste time, for that is the stuff life is made of."

MARCH 26.

Hostess, MRS. HUGHES

"Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding."

MRS. JACOBS

"And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

MRS. HUGHES

APRIL 9.

Hostess, MRS. ROBBINS

"Yet, scattered here and there, I some behold,
Who can discern the tinsel from the gold."

MRS. FISHER

"What oft was thought, but ne'er so well expressed."

MRS. ROBBINS

APRIL 23.

Hostess, Mrs. Jacobs

"It's going on and up that's the fun of studying, not arriving at the place, arriving is the end."

Mrs. d'Isay

"Everything is interesting if you only make a study of it."

Mrs. Hall

MAY 7.

Hostess, Mrs. Naylor

"Spring unlocks the flowers to paint the laughing soil."

Mrs. McKay

"There was a dwelling of kings ere the world was waxen old;
Dukes were the doorwards there, and the roofs were thatched with gold;
Earls were the wrights that wrought it, and silver nailed its doors;
Earls' wives were the weaving women, queens' daughters strewed the floors."

Mrs. Naylor

"Measure not the work until the day is out, and the labor done."

Members

"May those who stand recorded here
Grow dearer with each added year;
Acquaintance into friendship grow
And friendship ever brighter glow."

By-Laws

ARTICLE I.

Name and Object.

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Reading Club of Fort Wayne.

The object of the club shall be the study of History, Literature and Art, and the general intellectual and social culture of its members.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 1. The number of active members shall be limited to thirty-two. Associate membership unlimited. All names of candidates for membership shall be presented to the Secretary in writing, endorsed by two members of the club. As vacancies occur these applicants shall be voted upon by ballot in the order in which their names have been proposed, and shall require a majority vote of the members to elect. One ballot only shall be taken upon each name. A name that is rejected shall not be presented again under six (6) months. Names of applicants must be proposed at a regular meeting at least two weeks before they are voted upon.

Sec. 2. Any member may bring a friend, not a resident of the city, to any regular meeting.

ARTICLE III.

Sec. 1. The officers of the club shall consist of a President, a Secretary, who shall also act as a Treasurer, and a Program Committee of three members.

Sec. 2. These officers shall be elected at the annual business meeting in March; the President and Secretary to enter upon their respective duties at the close of the working year. The Program Committee shall immediately assume the duties of their office.

Sec. 3. The duties of the Program Committee shall be to prepare and have printed the program for the following year, and to distribute the same four weeks before the first meeting. The drawing for dates shall be two weeks after the annual meeting. If for any acceptable reason a member cannot perform the work arranged for her, the Program Committee shall arrange the work for that day.

ARTICLE IV.

The Club year shall begin the first Tuesday of October and end the middle of May, the meetings to be held fortnightly, at half past two o'clock.

ARTICLE V.

All necessary expense shall be divided equally among the members of the club. There shall be an annual fee of $1.50 for each member, payable at the first meeting in October.

ARTICLE VI.

Seven (7) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VII.

These by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting, provided a written notice of the intended amendment is given to the Secretary at a previous meeting.

The object of the Club shall be the study of History, Literature and Art, and the general intellectual and social culture of its members.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 1. The number of active members shall be limited to thirty-two. Associate membership unlimited. All names of candidates for membership shall be presented to the Secretary in writing, endorsed by two members of the club. As vacancies occur these applicants shall be voted upon by ballot in the order in which their names have been proposed, and shall require a majority vote of the members to elect. One ballot only shall be taken upon each name. A name that is rejected shall not be presented again under six (6) months. Names of applicants must be proposed at a regular meeting at least two weeks before they are voted upon.

Sec. 2. Any member may bring a friend, not a resident of the city, to any regular meeting.

ARTICLE III.

Sec. 1. The officers of the club shall consist of a President, a Secretary, who shall also act as Treasurer, and a Program Committee of three members.

Sec. 2. These officers shall be elected at the annual business meeting in March. A majority vote of those present shall be necessary to elect. The President and Secretary shall enter upon their respective duties at the close of the working year. The Program Committee shall immediately assume the duties of their office.

Sec. 3. The duties of the Program Committee shall be to prepare and have printed the program for the following year, and to distribute the same four weeks before the first meeting. The drawing for dates shall be two weeks after the annual meeting. If for any acceptable reason a member cannot perform the work arranged for her, the Program Committee shall arrange the work for that day.

ARTICLE IV.

The Club year shall begin the first Tuesday of October and end the middle of May, the meetings to be held fortnightly, at half past two o'clock.

ARTICLE V.

All necessary expense shall be divided equally among the members of the club. There shall be an annual fee of $1.50 for each member, payable at the first meeting in October.

ARTICLE VI.

Seven (7) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VII.

These by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting, provided a written notice of the intended amendment is given to the Secretary at a previous meeting.
